

Philosophy Department

Visiting Speaker Series 2016-2017

Unless announced otherwise, all lectures are held on Fridays at 3:30pm
in Chester New Hall (CNH) 106.

Fall Term, 2016

September 23: Phillip Ricks (University of Iowa)

3:00 pm to 5:00 pm Sherman Centre/Mills Library (1st floor)

“How Was the Tractatus Meant to Be Read?”

Co-Sponsored with the Sherman Centre for Digital Scholarship

September 30: Donald C. Ainslie (University of Toronto)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“Hume and the Sceptical Malady”

October 7: Stefan Sciaraffa (McMaster University)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“The Referent of ‘Law’”

October 14: Mid-Term Recess

October 21: Joseph Carens (University of Toronto)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“Irregular Migrants, Refugees and Open Borders. Three Issues in the Ethics of Immigration”

October 28: Matthew Grellette (McMaster University)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“Law as Government by Warrant”

November 4: Henry Jackman (York University)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“William James on Conceptual Pessimism the Ambiguity of Truth”

November 11: Carla Fehr (University of Waterloo)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“Exploitation, Flourishing, and Epistemic Diversity”

November 18: Samantha Brennan (Western University)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“Ethics and our Early Years. Making Decisions for children as if childhood really mattered.”

November 25: Christoph Schuringa (New College of the Humanities, London)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“Animal Phronesis”

December 2: Ronald Den Otter (Cal Tech)

3:30 pm to 5:00 pm

“A Feminist Argument in Defense of Polygamy”
